

Cookie Policy

Last updated: 26 January 2026

This Cookie Policy applies to Frascati LLC (“Frascati”, “we”, “our” or “us”), a company incorporated under the laws of the Kyrgyz Republic, which operates the website and related services made available under the Frascati brand.

This Cookie Policy explains how we use cookies and similar technologies when you access or use our website, platform interfaces, and related online services, including white-label components made available through partner websites (collectively, the “Site”).

Cookies are small text files that are placed on your device when you visit a website. They are widely used to enable website functionality, enhance user experience, support security, and provide basic analytics.

By continuing to access or use the Site, you consent to the use of cookies in accordance with this Cookie Policy. You may manage or disable cookies at any time through your browser settings, as described below.

This Cookie Policy should be read together with our Privacy Policy, which explains how we process personal data more generally.

What Are Cookies?

Cookies are small text files that are placed on your device when you visit a website. They are widely used to enable core website functionality, improve performance, enhance security, and provide basic usage analytics.

Cookies set by the operator of a website are referred to as first-party cookies. Cookies set by third parties, such as analytics or service providers, are referred to as third-party cookies. Third-party cookies may allow those providers to recognize your device when you visit the Site or other websites that use their services.

Information collected through cookies may include technical identifiers such as IP address, device type, browser information, and general usage data. Cookies do not allow access to your device, data stored on your hard drive, or cookies placed by other websites.

Frascati may use third-party analytics and service providers to help understand how the Site is used and to improve its performance and functionality. These providers may collect information about how users interact with the Site, such as page visits and navigation patterns, in order to generate aggregated and anonymized usage statistics. Such providers act under contractual obligations that limit their use of this information to providing services to Frascati.

For general information about cookies, you may visit publicly available resources such as allaboutcookies.org.

How We Use Cookies

When you access the Site, Frascati may use first-party and limited third-party cookies and similar technologies to support the operation, security, and performance of the Site.

Cookies are used for the following purposes:

- to enable core website functionality and ensure the Site operates correctly;
- to remember basic preferences, such as language or session settings;
- to understand, in an aggregated manner, how users navigate and interact with the Site;
- to monitor technical performance and improve reliability and user experience; and
- to support basic security and integrity of the Site.

Frascati does not use cookies for targeted advertising, cross-site tracking, or behavioral advertising purposes.

Information Collected via Cookies

Information collected through cookies may include technical and usage data such as device type, browser information, approximate location derived from IP address, language settings, referrer URLs, time zone, and general interaction patterns with the Site.

This information is used in an aggregated and statistical form to understand usage trends and improve the operation of the Site. It is not used to make automated decisions, assess financial status, or perform profiling with legal or similarly significant effects.

Third-Party Cookies

Frascati may use limited third-party cookies provided by analytics or infrastructure service providers to assist in understanding how the Site is used and to support its functionality. Such providers act under contractual obligations that restrict their use of the information to providing services to Frascati.

Frascati does not control third-party websites or services and encourages users to review the privacy and cookie policies of any third parties whose technologies may be used on the Site.

Types of Cookies We Use

Strictly Necessary Cookies

These cookies are essential for the operation of the Site and enable core functionality, such as page navigation, access to secure areas, and basic security features. Without these cookies, the Site cannot function properly.

Strictly necessary cookies do not require user consent where permitted by applicable law.

Performance and Analytics Cookies

These cookies collect information about how users interact with the Site, such as pages visited, time spent on pages, or error messages encountered. This information is used in an aggregated and statistical manner to help us understand usage patterns and improve the performance and reliability of the Site.

Performance and analytics cookies are not used to identify individual users and are not used for targeted advertising or profiling.

Functionality Cookies

These cookies allow the Site to remember choices you make, such as language preferences or session settings, in order to provide a more consistent and user-friendly experience.

Functionality cookies do not track your activity across other websites.

Session Cookies

Session cookies are temporary cookies that are used during an active browsing session. They expire automatically when you close your browser or log out of the Site and are used to support basic Site functionality and security during your session.

How Long Cookies Remain on Your Device

Cookies may remain on your device for different periods of time depending on their type.

Session cookies are temporary and are deleted automatically when you close your browser or end your browsing session.

Persistent cookies remain on your device for a longer period of time and are deleted either when they expire or when you remove them manually through your browser settings.

The duration for which a cookie remains on your device depends on its purpose and configuration.

Similar Technologies

In addition to cookies, Frascati may use limited similar technologies, such as pixel tags or web beacons, to support the operation, performance, and basic analytics of the Site.

These technologies are used in a manner similar to cookies and help us understand, in an aggregated way, how content is accessed and used, for example by indicating whether a page or feature has been viewed. This information is used solely to improve the functionality and user experience of the Site.

Frascati does not use such technologies for targeted advertising, cross-site tracking, or profiling.

Frascati does not use Flash cookies (also known as Local Shared Objects or LSOs) or other deprecated tracking technologies.

Advertising Cookies

Frascati does not use advertising cookies and does not engage in targeted advertising, behavioral advertising, or cross-site advertising technologies.

The Site does not display third-party advertisements and does not use cookies or similar technologies to track users across websites for advertising or marketing purposes. Frascati does not permit third-party advertising networks to place cookies on the Site for advertising-related purposes.

Any third-party technologies used on the Site are limited to those necessary for core functionality, security, or basic aggregated analytics, as described in this Cookie Policy.

Managing Cookies and Similar Technologies

You can manage or disable cookies at any time through your browser settings. Most browsers allow you to control cookies through their settings, including the ability to delete existing cookies or block new cookies from being placed on your device.

Please note that disabling or blocking certain cookies, particularly strictly necessary cookies, may affect the availability or functionality of the Site, including access to secure areas or core features.

For more information about how to manage cookies using your browser, you may consult publicly available resources such as allaboutcookies.org.

Frascati does not use advertising cookies, mobile advertising identifiers, or similar technologies for targeted or cross-site advertising purposes. Accordingly, there are no advertising opt-out mechanisms required for the Site beyond standard browser-based controls.

Frascati does not use Flash cookies or other deprecated tracking technologies.

Updates to This Cookie Policy

Frascati may update this Cookie Policy from time to time to reflect changes in applicable laws, regulatory requirements, or our use of cookies and similar technologies.

Any updates will be posted on this page with a revised “Last updated” date. Where changes are material, we may provide additional notice through the Site. We encourage you to review this Cookie Policy periodically to stay informed about our use of cookies.

Your continued use of the Site after an updated Cookie Policy becomes effective constitutes your acceptance of the updated policy, subject to your ability to manage cookies through your browser settings.

If you have any questions about this Cookie Policy or our use of cookies and similar technologies, you may contact us at info@frascati.io.
